

OUR PROFESSION

HEBREWS 3:1

1 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our *PROFESSION, Christ Jesus;

PROFESSION: homologia {hom-ol-og-ee'-ah
Confession, subjectively: whom we profess to be ours, objectively: profession [confession] i. e. what one professes [confesses]

HEBREWS 4:14

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

When you develop a thought, it is analyzed by the conscious mind which then starts to send electro-chemicals within the brain. As the electro-chemicals travel through the brain, neural pathways are opened and the data passes through the brain.

As the data travels, additional cells throughout the brain are imprinted with the data being processed. The conscious mind then attaches emotion to the thought based on its perceived interpretation of the data. This increases the vibration of the thought and at that time a belief is established.

This belief is then stored in the subconscious mind. This belief could be based on truth, reality, or a lie. It depends on where the thought came from and how it was interpreted.

This data can then be accessed and utilized in the future by the conscious mind to either support or deny any further thoughts that are inputted into the conscious mind.

When the conscious mind receives the same input again, it is the job of the subconscious mind to locate and provide that data which was stored previously, send it back to the conscious mind with an emotion of some type included, which was also stored previously with the data, which will create a vibration based on the frequency of the data presented.

This really is not a hard process to achieve. It just takes work and determination, and having faith doesn't hurt either.

You must always remember that the subconscious mind does not know the difference between what is real or imagined. It only responds to what is fed to it.

AFFIRMATIONS AND THE SUBCONSCIOUS

Affirmations are short phrases that are repeated over and over again. The main objective of affirmations is to "program" your subconscious Mind. The subconscious Mind is also sublime, that is to say it never, ever questions your instructions and never has alternative ideas. To the subconscious Mind whatever you say goes!

Our challenge therefore is to bypass the conscious Mind to gain direct access to the subconscious Mind. The first is to repeat the affirmation, or be exposed to the affirmation so many times that the conscious Mind cannot intercept and reject them all.

Another method is to use affirmations at a time when the conscious Mind is less active and the Mind generally is much more receptive. These best times are just before sleep and just after awaking.

Saying affirmations until you drift off to sleep is very powerful. Not only does it reach the subconscious Mind much more readily, but by taking the affirmation into the sleep state it will continue to influence the subconscious Mind during sleep. The important thing is to drive the message home to the subconscious Mind.

Affirmations must always be repeated in the present tense and must be short. For example; "I feel completely healthy" or "I am loved", I will make it through this, and so on. Many people make the mistake of creating affirmations that are too long, and also creating too many related affirmations.

The Subconscious Mind, although very powerful, is also very simple in the way it perceives things and is easily confused. Affirmations must therefore be short, unambiguous and few in number. No more than 10 very closely related affirmations should therefore be used, and they should be of as few words as possible.

Three further aspects of making affirmations much more powerful and which can make the difference between them working or not is belief, gratitude and emotion. You must believe that the object of your wishes is here now, which it really is, and is merely waiting to arrive into your life.

Another is gratitude; always feel grateful that you have already received and are enjoying the object of your desires. Emotion is extremely powerful because it raises your vibrational state making the process much faster and more efficient. Feel therefore how happy you are to be in possession of your desires.
