AFFIRMATIONS AND THE SUBCONSCIOUS

Affirmations are short phrases that are repeated over and over again. The main objective of affirmations is to "program" your subconscious Mind. The subconscious Mind is also sublime, that is to say it never, ever questions your instructions and never has alternative ideas. To the subconscious Mind whatever you say goes!

The conscious Mind is often resistant to change, preferring things just the way they are, for better or for worse. This is why affirmations frequently fail to work for many people; the subconscious Mind is simply not receiving the message.

Our challenge therefore is to bypass the conscious Mind to gain direct access to the subconscious Mind. The first is to repeat the affirmation, or be exposed to the affirmation so many times that the conscious Mind cannot intercept and reject them all. Another method is to use affirmations at a time when the conscious Mind is less active and the Mind generally is much more receptive. These best times are just before sleep and just after awaking.

Saying affirmations until you drift off to sleep is very powerful. Not only does it reach the subconscious Mind much more readily, but by taking the affirmation into the sleep state it will continue to influence the subconscious Mind during sleep. The important thing is to drive the message home to the subconscious Mind.

Affirmations must always be repeated in the present tense and must be short. For example; "I feel completely healthy" or "I am loved", I will make it through this, and so on. Many people make the mistake of creating affirmations that are too long, and also creating too many related affirmations. The Subconscious Mind, although very powerful, is also very simple in the way it perceives things and is easily confused. Affirmations must therefore be short, unambiguous and few in number. No more than 10 very closely related affirmations should therefore be used, and they should be of as few words as possible.

Three further aspects of making affirmations much more powerful and which can make the difference between them working or not is belief, gratitude and emotion. You must believe that the object of your wishes is here now, which it really is, and is merely waiting to arrive into your life. Another is gratitude; always feel grateful that you have already received and are enjoying the object of your desires. Emotion is extremely powerful because it raises your vibrational state making the process much faster and more efficient. Feel therefore how happy you are to be in possession of your desires.
