

HIS LOVE PERFECTED IN US II

I JOHN 2:5

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

I JOHN 4:12

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

I JOHN 4:16

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

I JOHN 4:17

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

I JOHN 4:18

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

I JOHN 4:18

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

fear hath torment--Greek, "punishment. " Fear is always revolving in the mind the punishment deserved. Fear, by anticipating punishment (through consciousness of deserving it).

Perfect love is incompatible with such a self-punishing fear. Godly fear of offending God is quite distinct from slavish fear of consciously deserved punishment.

Because fear hath torment: it distresses a man, fills him with anguish, and makes him restless and uneasy, and keeps him in servitude; It is a punishment itself to a man; and its being criminal deserves punishment, and is punishable.

I JOHN 4:18

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that *FEARETH is not made perfect in love.

FEARETH: phobeo {fob-eh'-o}

Fear, be afraid, be afraid of, to put to flight by terrifying (to scare away) to be struck with fear, to be seized with alarm; of those startled by strange sights or occurrences;

I JOHN 4:18

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

FAITH. IS. THE. SUBSTANCE_ LA. CA TUESDAY_ 51-0508

E-16 Above everything that you do, love one another. And as you love one another, you'll love God. See? You love each other and you'll love God. For God is love. And a man that walks in love, walks in life. And perfect love casteth out all fear.

Then if you can take Him at His Word, and not fear a bit about it. Say, "Lord, I love You; I know You're going to answer because You promised me You would, and I just know You're going to do it. " See? And it takes away all fear.

THE. BEGINNING. OF. JESUS. FAME_ CONNERSVILLE. IN FRIDAY_ 53-0605

E-5 As long as you're doing what He says do, and you know you're directly led, well then there's nothing to fear. Perfect love casts out all fear. There's no fear in God. Love takes away fear.

EXPECTATION_ PHOENIX. AZ SUNDAY_ 54-0228A

E-45 Like I was telling a lady this morning, when you go to fry your meat for breakfast, and a big bunch of grease pops up on your hand, the first thing you. . . just scares you to death. You grab your hand and "Where is the Unguentine?" just as quick as you can.

That's the reason it burns you. That's what makes. . . The scare is what. . . I can prove that. It's the scare that burns you. You got the Holy Ghost, it's operating in your body. Well, when that old snake grabbed a hold of Paul's hand, there was not a bit of scare.

He looked at it like that, shook it off in the fire, and went on, and got some more sticks. It didn't scare him. See, if you're not scared. Jesus said, "Why did you fear?" Peter come walking on the water, doing fine until he seen the waves were contrary, then he got scared and begin to sink.

Jesus come, picked him up, said, "Why did you fear, oh ye of little faith?" Fear, you're scared it won't happen. Don't have one bit of fear; move forward. God said so; that settles it.

EXPECTATION_ PHOENIX. AZ SUNDAY_ 54-0228A

E-46 And you can't do that until you have love. Perfect love casts out all fear.

THE. POWER. OF. THE. DEVIL_ CHICAGO. IL WEDNESDAY_ 55-1005

E-48 I love Him, and I want you to love Him. I want you to believe Him. Perfect love casts out all fear. If you love Him with the right kind of a heart, you won't have one speck of fear whether you can keep His Word or not.

DIVINE. LOVE. AND. SOVEREIGN. GRACE_ PRINCE. ALBERT. SK TUESDAY_ 56-0814

E-15 one of the greatest hindrance that there is in the church today, and right here at Edmonton, and every. . . or not Edmonton, I didn't mean to say that. I mean Prince Albert.

And--and among other people everywhere is fear, but love, perfect love casteth out fear. So you. . . The reason you're-- you're fearful is because the right temperance of love has never entered yet. When there's real love, all fear passes away.

There are only two types of emotions, each with their own anatomy and physiology: love and fear all other emotions are variations of these. Out of the love branch come emotions of joy, trust, caring, peace, contentment, patience, kindness, gentleness, etc.

Fear-based emotions include bitterness, anger, hatred, rage, anxiety, guilt, shame, inadequacy, depression, confusion, etc. These emotions directly affect our bodies because the amount of chemicals released is based on which group the emotions belong to - either the love-based or fear-based group.

Obviously, weeding out emotions based on fear will greatly detoxify your thought life. In fact, researchers have even identified a neural circuit for holding learned fear in check. When we experience love emotions, our brains and bodies function differently better actually than if we experience fear emotions.

The negative, fear based emotions force the body into backup systems just to hold the fear in check, which is not the ideal and not the first choice. Science and the Bible teach us not to fear! The fact is, although you are completely unaware of the mechanisms by which it happens, thought formation and emotional expression are always tied to a specific flow of chemicals in your body. In a nutshell, emotions bring the whole body into a single purpose, integrating systems and coordinating mental processes and biology to create behavior.

Emotions are psychological (what we think) and biological (what we feel). Our brain responds to our thoughts by releasing hormones and chemicals which send us into a state of arousal. All emotions come about in this way, whether positive or negative.

Fear has a way of paralyzing us. It stops us in our tracks and puts all our focus on our problem. When we do this, fear has a stronger grip around our lives.

Fear gives more and more power to the devil by magnifying the issue. Fear is like a magnifying glass that focuses in on our problem making it much larger and scarier than it really is.

Fear is one the devil's most powerful weapons against God's children because instead of focusing on God's provision, we focus on our lack; Instead of believing God's word on healing, we focus on the negative symptoms we are experiencing. We begin to doubt God and His word.

Remember the devil is a liar. He will whisper lies to us, but reject them. You will know they are lies because they build on your fear and God will never put fear on His children.

You see, fear is the opposite of faith. Satan always counterfeits the things of God. Fear and faith cannot co-exist. Whichever we turn towards, will have the most influence in our lives. Faith is to believe what the Bible says. It is focusing on the good things Jesus has done for us.

Over and over in the Bible we are told "Fear not" "Do not be Afraid" "Let not your heart be troubled" "Be anxious for nothing. " All these things have a way of paralyzing us so that we don't fulfill our purpose in life. If we are told to not fear then it is our choice.

I used to think that fear was just there and I could do nothing about it, but Jesus tells us to not fear. We must make the choice to not fear when we feel fearful about something.

Let this be your meditation. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

Fear is more than a simply a mental state. It affects both the physiology of the body and the chemical balance of the brain as well. When people are afraid it generates stress.

Extreme stress can manifest itself physically in a number of ways. In extreme cases it can cause tunnel vision, loss of color perception (color blindness), it can cause a distortion of both time and of depth perception.

Often when someone is involved in a serious auto accident they will describe these effects. They may say, "It was like everything was in slow motion", or, "Everything was in black and white". What they are describing is the effect of stress generated by fear.

Fear (and the stress generated by it) will raise blood pressure. It will also deplete the immune system. Fear causes errors in judgment and prevents us from taking the most reasonable course of action.

Fear and anger have different effects upon your body. In the gastrointestinal tract, fear reduces contractions and secretions (e. g. acid) in the upper digestive tract (stomach and duodenum), leading to nausea, fullness, and loss of appetite.

In contrast, fear increases contractions and secretion in the lower digestive tract (colon), resulting in diarrhea and abdominal pain. This response could be associated with the symptoms of nausea and diarrhea. This gut response to fear has been built in and encoded within you.

On the other hand, anger operates differently in the gut. Its effects are just the opposite of fear's effects. Anger increases stomach contractions that can lead to upper abdominal pain. It reduces colon contractions, which results in constipation.

With each case, the gut experiences the unique and stereotyped impact of emotion. Fear loosens your bowels. Anger bottles you up. But when emotions come into play, the gut is not the only system implicated.

Your emotional responses are not limited to the gastrointestinal tract. All organs and tissues of the body are involved. This includes the mind/brain, even if and when it doesn't know what is going on.

I JOHN 4:18

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

I JOHN 4:19

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

JOHN 17:23

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

I WILL NOT FEAR DEATH

PSALM 116:15

15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

JOHN 8:51

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

JOHN 8:52

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

ROMANS 8:37

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

ROMANS 8:38

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

ROMANS 8:39

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

II TIMOTHY 4:6

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my *DEPARTURE is at hand.

This phrase, "a departure", is an easy representation of death, and shows an existence after it.

DEPARTURE: analisis {an-al'-oo-sis} an unloosing (as of things woven), a dissolving (into separate parts)

It is applied to the act of unloosing or casting off the fastenings of a ship, preparatory to a departure. The proper idea in the use of the word would be, that he had been bound to the present world, like a ship to its moorings, and that death would be a release.

He would now spread his sails on the broad ocean of eternity. The true idea of death is that of loosening the bands that confine us to the present world; of setting us free, and permitting the soul to go forth, as with expanded sails, on its eternal voyage. With such a view of death, why should a Christian fear to die?

II TIMOTHY 4:7

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

This metaphor is taken from a soldier, a combatant, a champion; I have fought a good fight.

II TIMOTHY 4:8

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

The reward is a crown of righteousness, because only given to righteous men:

HEBREWS 11:36

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

HEBREWS 11:37

HEBREWS 11:38

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

HEBREWS 2:9

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

HEBREWS 2:14

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

HEBREWS 2:15

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

REVELATION 2:10

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

THE. WATER. OF. SEPARATION_ CHICAGO. IL FRIDAY_ 55-0121

E-15 I used to oftentime wonder what's the matter with the Christian church, they're so scared of things. Why, you've got nothing to be scared about. The first word nearly Jesus said after the resurrection, "Fear not. " See, don't fear. Don't get scared.

There ain't nothing going to happen. Nothing can happen. Nothing can bother a Christian. Amen. Not even death itself can even touch the Christian. "He that heareth My words, and believeth on him that sent Me, hath Everlasting Life, and shall not come into condemnation; but has passed from death to Life. " Amen.

Death itself has no reign over a Christian. Christ died in our stead. Amen. What a marvelous. . . What--what a faith that ought to build up in the people, something that'll toe the mark. You'll never get nothing by being a little jellyfish Christian. No, sir.

Did you ever see a jellyfish? You just hit him, he splatters all over everything. See? A jellyfish, you know what usually eats them? The crabs and things along the side of the seashore, comes up with his pincher and cuts him in two and takes him down, 'cause the jellyfish just lays there.

Brother, we need some Christians, not jellyfish, but with a backbone (That's right.) that'll stand. Oh, I don't mean to fuss with people, but stand for your God given rights that Christ died for. Certainly. Not pushed around, we don't have to be. No, sir.

We got a--we got an inheritance. Amen. And our inheritance belongs to us. . . .
