14 Issachar is a strong ass couching down between two burdens:

Of course, when Tiglath-Pileser annexed this territory to the Assyrian empire in 732 B. C. , Issachar lost all rights of self-government. And in 721 B. C. this tribe, along with all the others of the northern kingdom, was carried into exile.

551-3 {199} Now, I want you to watch real close and read with me for a minute. Now, here's something that maybe you never noticed in the--the tribal calling.

I told you awhile ago to read Revelations 7. Read with me and watch those tribes. In Revelations 7 Dan and Ephraim is missing and not numbered with them. Did you notice that? Joseph and Levi was substituted in their place. You notice that?

Dan and Ephraim is not there. No, sir. But Joseph and Levi was substituted in the place of--of--of Dan and Ephraim. Why? They--the ever remembering God remembers every promise of His Word.

(Oh, I'd like to preach on that. See?) God don't forget nothing, though it looks like. Like He told Moses, Israel had been down there four hundred years, they had to go up that time.

He told Abraham that his seed would be sojourning in a strange land for four hundred years, then He'd bring them out with a mighty hand. But then He said to Moses, "I have remembered My promise, and I've come down to make good what I said. "

God doesn't forget. He doesn't forget His curses, neither does He forget His blessings. But every promise that He made, He stays with it. Here's why they were missing.

554-1 {214} See? Ephraim at Beth-el, and Dan; and they set up idols, and these went out to worship this.

And here we are plumb down into the millennium age almost, and God still remembered that sin. They're not even counted in there. Amen. Glory. Just as sure as He remembers every good promise, He remembers every one evil too.

Just remember when. . . That's the reason I believe, friends; I've always tried to stay with that Word no matter how strange it seems.

However, after this period of tribulation, (during the millennium,) as seen by Ezekiel in 48:1-8, and 22-29 we see the tribes back once more in Divine order.

But, from the time that Ephraim and Dan joined themselves to idols, they died, and those tribes have no more recognition. Now I realize that since the destruction of Jerusalem, all records of all tribes have been lost, so that no one can say for sure what tribe he is from, BUT GOD KNOWS. That great God Who is bringing Israel back to Palestine knows exactly which tribe every true Israelite is from,

and from all the assembled one hundred forty-four thousand Dan and Ephraim will be missing.

DEUTERONOMY 33:23

23 And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the LORD: possess thou the west and the south.
