LAW. OR. GRACE_ JEFF. IN V-26 N-7 WEDNESDAY_ 54-1006
110. Christians are not promised a flower bed of ease, but they're promised grace sufficient for every need they have. Amen..... .

THE. KINSMAN. REDEEMER_ JEFF. IN V-6 N-8 SUNDAY_ 60-

91. And preachers that'll tell you that the--the Christian life is a flower bed of ease, he either is deceiving you or he's never accepted that experience himself. The world hates you.

And the people will hate you. You've got to take the way of the Lord's despised few, and be laughed at, and made fun of, or anything else. You got to be different. You're borned of another nation.

79 The Christian doesn't ask for easy things. We are not. . .
There's so much promises today made amongst Christian people;
so many ministers promise the people a false thing,

"If you'll just come to Christ, all your troubles is settled. " I tell you; when you come to Christ they then begin. That's when you put on a uniform, and take a gun, and enter the battlefield. This Christian road is not a flower bed of ease.

It is a battle from the very hour you start until you're spirit's set free by death. You are not at no picnic. You're on a battlegrounds. And so we are promised things.

A. DECEIVED. CHURCH. BY. THE. WORLD_ JEFF. IN CH 67
SUNDAY_ 59-0628M

8 Remember, we are not on a picnic, but we're in a battlefield.
Many people just think that when they become a Christian that that's all they need to do, that that settles it forever, as they are a Christian and everything's going to come easy. Don't never get that in your head. For I become a Christian to fight, fight the good fight of faith. I become a Christian to get in the battle lines.

We are Christian soldiers, and we got to be trained, and brought up, and know all the techniques of the enemy, to know how to fortify, to know how to--to fight the fight.
