

Exodus 14 King James Version (KJV)

10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the Lord.

11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

15 And the Lord said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

An Exposition Of The Seven Church Ages - 2 - The Patmos Vision

The Word preached actually demonstrated itself. Like a flaming, cutting sword it went to the consciences of men, and like a surgeon's knife it cut out the diseases and set captives free.

Everywhere those early believers went, "they went preaching the Gospel (Word) and God confirmed that Word with signs following." The sick were healed, devils were cast out, and they spoke in new tongues. That was the Word in action.

That Word has never failed in the mouths of believing Christians. And in this last age it is here stronger and greater than ever in the true Word bride.

Oh, little flock, you little minority, hold on to the Word, fill your mouth and heart with it, and some day God will give you the kingdom.

61-0213 - And Thy Seed Shall Possess The Gate Of His Enemies

What's the first thing a child of God has for refuge when a trial comes? The greatest weapon was ever put in the hands of mankind: prayer. It even changes everything. It even changed the mind of God one time

A vigorous faith will often shut its eyes to difficulties. When faith looks upon a difficulty as being exceedingly great, then she turns to prayer; but, on the other hand, after having sought God's help, and having received it, she frequently laughs at the impossibility, and cries, "It shall be done"; and then, instead of spending any more time on her knees, she boldly marches on, believing that the difficulty will vanish before her, that the crooked will be made straight, and the rough places plain.

We are not to be always praying over a difficulty; when we have fairly committed it to God, we are to act upon the assurance that he has heard us; - Charles Spurgeon

63-0714M - Why Cry? Speak!

Moses crying out to God, in the time of trouble; and God rebuking Moses back, right when trouble was in—in session. And it's just nature, seeming like, for a person to cry out.

And then what a—a rebuke it is for God to turn around and rebuke him for saying it, for crying out to Him.
