THE. REVELATION. OF. JESUS. CHRIST_ JEFF. IN ROJC 9-67
SUNDAY_ 60-1204M

113 Then we find out that when John started to worship the angel, the angel said, "See that you do it not." Revelations 22, I believe it is. And he said, "For I am of Thy fellow servants and of the prophets."

It might've been Elijah. It might've been one of the prophets. John was an apostle, but this prophet was sent. And John being an apostle. . . Look at the nature of the rest of his epistles; prove that it wasn't John wrote it, because it has no nature like John.

Take I John and II John, so forth, and read it. And look at the nature of that, then look at the nature of this. John was a writer and was an apostle, but this is the spirit of a prophet. It's a different person altogether. See?

Wasn't John's writing, wasn't John's revelation; It was God's revelation of Jesus Christ to the churches. And it had. . . John was just a writer, the scribe, and--and the Book declares the same.

Now, it wasn't addressed to John; It was a--addressed to the church. All right. John at that time was the pastor of the Ephesian church. And now, the Book is addressed to John--or to the church, not to John.

146 Satan was. . . will be taken from the earth, just exactly like Satan was taken from you. Satan cannot bother; or, he can tempt, but he cannot get a born-again Christian.

For, God, from the foundation of the world, foresaw him, and sent Jesus to redeem him, and the Blood speaks for him. How can he sin when it can't be seen, even, by God? He don't even. . . The only thing He hears is your voice. He sees your representation. Amen! That is true. See?
