

THE DARKEST HOUR, THEN JESUS COMES ALONG

JOHN 11:1

1 ¶ Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

JOHN 11:2

2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

JOHN 11:3

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

JOHN 11:4

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

JOHN 11:5

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

JOHN 11:6

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

JOHN 11:14

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

JOHN 11:15

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

JOHN 11:20

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

JOHN 11:21

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

JOHN 11:22

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

E-56 Now, here comes Mary and Martha and their dark hours had come. Jesus had failed them seemingly. All hopes was gone, that ever... Everything was in the black. And the first thing you know, the darkest hour they had, then Jesus come along. He usually comes just at that dark hour, doesn't He? How wonderful.

THE.PRESENCE.OF.THE.LORD.JESUS_ MACON.GA SUNDAY_ 55-0612

E-47.....Four days, done stinking, after seventy-two hours corruption sets in it.

Then all hopes was gone. There was Martha and Mary, had left their church, give up all they had. There their brother was dead. The Man that they had confidence, being the great Man Who went around and did miracles, He had left them and gone away, wouldn't come when they sent to pray for his brother. The darkest hour, that little family had ever seen... And usually about the darkest hour, that's when Jesus comes around.

GOD.HATH.A.PROVIDED.WAY_ JEFF.IN SUNDAY_ 56-0108

E-35 That's the way God did it for the woman with the blood issue. Her darkest hour, and then along came Jesus. It was the Hebrew children's darkest hour, then God rode in on the winds of time, and fanned the fire away from the Hebrew children. It was in Abraham's darkest hour, when he drew back the knife and laid his own little boy back, and pulled his head back, and his heart in his mouth, as it was. His own son, and he pulled the knife to cut his throat, because God had said so. It was the darkest moment when God, Jehovah, appeared on the scene, said, "Abraham, stay your hand. I have provided already."

"You done what?"

"I've provided already a sacrifice.".....

AND.THEN.JESUS.CAME_ NEWARK.NJ FRIDAY_ 57-1213

E-34 The man who had been carried and laid by the pool of Bethesda, by the waters, and he had been sick for thirty-eight years, no one could help him. And he laid on a pallet, helpless. It was probably his darkest hour. Then Jesus came along and helped him.

It was old blind Bartimaeus who set outside the walls of Jericho and shivered in the winds, when the cold November winds was a blowing. He was blind. He was poor. What would he do? It was his darkest hour. Then Jesus came along. That's the way Jesus does.

BELIEVEST.THOU.THIS_ MINNEAPOLIS.MN SUNDAY_ 50-0716

E-76.....And now, in the very darkest of hours, then Jesus came along. That's just the way He does it. Amen.

Brother, it may be your darkest of hour right now. But Jesus comes along just at the darkest of hour. When I think of it, it's the darkest hour the woman with the blood issue had ever seen; she spent all of her money. Then Jesus come along. It was the darkest of hour that Jairus had ever seen; his little daughter laid dead. Then Jesus came along. It was the darkest of hour that Peter and the apostles had ever seen on the sea; looked like they was going to drown. Then Jesus came along.

E-57 It was the darkest of hours the woman with the blood issue had ever seen. She had spent all of her money, then Jesus come along. It was the darkest hours that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego had ever seen, then Jesus come along. It was the darkest hour that Jairus had ever seen when he said his little daughter twelve years old had done died, then Jesus come along. It was the darkest hour that old blind Bartimaeus had ever seen down there, then Jesus come along. That's right. He's always there at the darkest of hours.....

THE.RESURRECTION.OF.LAZARUS_ ERIE.PA SUNDAY_ 51-0729A

E-84.....I was laying yonder in Mayo's Hospital. Mayo Brothers looked at me, and they put me in examinations. Said, "Reverend Branham, we're sorry to inform you of this. But you're finished. Nothing can be done for you. You're finished."

And then Jesus come along. Oh, my. O mercy!

It may be your darkest hour now, brother, setting there shaking in the chair. I've watched you for two nights. Wouldn't it be wonderful if Jesus come along about this time?

What about you, setting there with cancer, the doctor says you can't live? Your darkest hour and then Jesus comes along.

He's always there just in the darkest hour.

When the Hebrew children was making their last step in the fiery furnace, then Jesus come along.

When the woman with the blood issue had...?... paid all of her money out for doctors, and none could do no good, then Jesus come along. He's right there. Don't be weary. If you love Him, stay right with Him. He will be there. Jesus come along.

THE.RESURRECTION.OF.LAZARUS_ EVANSVILLE.IN SUNDAY_ 53-1122

E-81.....Little Georgie Carter, here at Milltown, nine years and eight months, laying on a bed. Her church taught days of miracles is past. God gave a vision, said, "Go down there." When it's your darkest hour, she was dying. Weighed thirty-seven pounds. Then Jesus come along. Yes, it's always that way; the darkest of hour, then Jesus comes along. I've seen in my own family when things get so dark I didn't know which way to go, then Jesus comes along.

THE.RESURRECTION.OF.JAIRUS.DAUGHTER_ LOUISVILLE.KY
WEDNESDAY_ 54-0331

E-15 That's the way He does; just about the time it gets the very darkest of hour, then Jesus comes along. We fret and worry, we Christians. And the baby gets sick, or something happens, or somebody don't show up, we're just so nervous and upset. We should just set quiet. He's the One Who commanded it. We're living under His dispensation, living under His grace. Just set still. He'll be along after while. Don't worry. He'll open up a healing service somewhere, or you'd be guided to somebody who prays for the sick when you got sickness. If not, He'll just put it upon your heart so bad, you'll just kneel down in the room and ask Him about it yourself. That's right. So just remember, He works all things together for good.
